Legal Office

Senior Legal Counsel (at the rank of Assistant Secretary)

(Ref: 260000DX) (Closing date: April 4, 2026)

The newly-established Legal Office is committed to ensuring compliance with all applicable laws and regulations under the guidance of the University management, with advice from the Council.

The key objectives of the Legal Office include offering expert legal advice to the University leadership; managing legal risks and mitigating potential liabilities; and fostering a culture of legal awareness across the campus. Additionally, the Legal Office should be able to give general advice or line up appropriate external referral service when there are legal issues that may arise in academic and administrative activities.

The University is recruiting a seasoned legal professional to perform the following functions: (a) Leadership and Strategy: Oversee the legal office, set strategic direction, and ensure alignment with the University's goals; (b) Advisory Role: Provide legal advice to the University's senior management; (c) Risk Management and Policy Development: Ensure the University's compliance with applicable laws and regulations, mitigate legal risks, and maintain legally sound policies and procedures; (d) General Enquiries: Provide legal advice on general enquiries and other correspondences; (e) Liaison with and Management of External Counsel: Identify, retain, and manage external legal practitioners where the specialisation of legal matters so requires; and (f) perform any other duties as assigned.

Applicants should have (i) a good honours degree in a legal discipline; (ii) at least ten years of post-qualification experience providing legal/regulatory advice to complex organizations (higher education or other public sector experience is an asset); (iii) professional qualification, e.g. qualified barrister or solicitor admitted to practice in Hong Kong; (iv) strong critical thinking skills to understand complex fact patterns, identify legal issues and provide timely advice; (v) demonstrated ability to work independently and resourcefully; (vi) proven ability as a strong communicator to deliver advice that is clear and practical, both orally and in writing in both English and Chinese (proficiency in Putonghua an added advantage); and (vii) experience in supporting board-level governance highly preferred.

Appointment will initially be made on contract basis for up to three years, renewable subject to mutual agreement.

Application Procedure

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for the post above via the CUHK career site. For more information and to apply online, please visit <http://career.cuhk.edu.hk>.

Clinical Faculty HKUST School of Medicine

The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) invites applications from exceptional candidates for clinical faculty positions (Clinical Professor / Clinical Associate Professor / Clinical Assistant Professor) for its new School of Medicine, in a range of clinical disciplines including but not limited to:

Medicine / Surgery / Orthopaedics and Traumatology / Obstetrics and Gynaecology /
Paediatrics and Adolescent Medicine / Family Medicine / Psychiatry / and others such as Community Medicine / Geriatric Medicine /
Emergency Medicine / Radiology / Oncology / Pathology

The University

HKUST is a dynamic young University with a global reputation for impact and innovation. Founded in 1991, HKUST is consistently ranked among the world's best institutions and 1st in Hong Kong for graduate employability.

As a world-renowned international research and interdisciplinary University with top-tier programs in science, engineering, business and management, humanities and social science, and interdisciplinary studies, HKUST is known for its entrepreneurial culture and powerful connections to industry and research. The University's English-speaking academic community thrives in a world-class, scenic environment at the Clear Water Bay campus.

HKUST's pioneering spirit is amplified through the "Unified HKUST, Complementary Campuses" framework, expanded by the opening of the innovative HKUST(Guangzhou) campus in 2022, which deepens its interdisciplinary reach into the Greater Bay Area and beyond.

For more information about HKUST, please visit: <https://hkust.edu.hk>.

The HKUST School of Medicine

HKUST is embarking on a landmark initiative to establish the third medical school of Hong Kong following the successful proposal of the University and subsequent official approval from the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government.

The HKUST School of Medicine aspires to be a transformative force, focused on world-class education and research while attracting global talents. By integrating cutting-edge technology and pioneering science, the School will help shape the future of medicine and reinforce Hong Kong's position as an international hub for medical training, research, and innovation.

Built upon HKUST's interdisciplinary strengths, deeply international character, and global networks, the School will foster a world-class learning environment. As a leader in fields such as artificial intelligence, data science, and robotics, HKUST is uniquely positioned to create a medical school that fuses exceptional clinical expertise with technological innovation. Its mission is to cultivate future-ready physicians who are not only clinically outstanding but also technologically adept, innovative, and compassionate. The School will launch a 4-year graduate-entry Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) program, with global admissions opening by 2027 and the inaugural class expected to commence in the 2028/29 academic year.

The School will initially operate in a dedicated new medical teaching and research building at the Clear Water Bay campus, along with satellite site(s) close to a teaching hospital partner. Its long-term future includes a transition to a permanent, integrated campus and medical teaching and research hospital within Hong Kong's strategic Northern Metropolis, placing it at the center of the dynamic Greater Bay Area innovation ecosystem.

About the Roles

This is an invitation to join as the inaugural batch of clinical faculty of Hong Kong's third medical school, at HKUST – a unique opportunity to integrate clinical education and research with world-leading strengths in artificial intelligence, data science, and the biomedical sciences and engineering, bringing long-term impact on health care in Hong Kong and beyond.

We are seeking visionary clinician-educators and physician-scientists to shape the School from its inception, actively contributing to its direction and growth. Appointees will play an active role in medical student education, including curriculum design and program accreditation, and will help pioneer innovative, technology-driven pedagogies. A deep commitment to research is central to the School's mission; physician-scientists will lead cutting-edge clinical and translational research that pushes boundaries and drives the development of novel diagnostics, therapeutics, and healthcare technologies. Eligible appointees may also provide clinical services through the University's public and private health service partners, ensuring synergy between clinical practice, teaching and research.

Candidates

Applicants should have:

- A medical qualification registrable with the Medical Council of Hong Kong, with a specialist qualification (or comparable overseas qualification) recognized by the Hong Kong Academy of Medicine. Limited registration will be arranged for eligible overseas candidates.
- A higher academic qualification (e.g., MD, MS, PhD) is highly advantageous.
- Demonstrated clinical excellence and professional expertise in their field.
- A strong commitment to, and proven experience in, effective teaching of medical students, interns, and trainees, with a vision for integrating technology into education.
- A demonstrated capacity to initiate and contribute to basic, clinical, and/or translational research, with a strong ethos for fostering interdisciplinary collaborations. A strong record of peer-reviewed publications and a trajectory for securing competitive research funding are expected.

Applicants for Clinical Professor or Clinical Associate Professor should have substantial experience and a distinguished record of clinical and/or research achievement, leadership in education and research, and a regional/international reputation in their field. Applicants with less experience will be considered for Clinical Assistant Professor positions.

Types of Appointments

Recognizing the diverse strengths of exceptional faculty, the School offers two distinct career paths:

- Clinical Professoriate Track: For appointees with a higher proportion of teaching and research duties, focusing on both educational and research leadership.
- Clinical Professoriate of Practice Track: For appointees with a higher proportion of teaching and clinical service duties, focusing on clinical excellence and the integration of practice into education.

Appointment as Clinical Professor will be on a substantive basis. Initial appointment for Clinical Associate Professor / Clinical Assistant Professor will normally be on a 3-year contract, renewable subject to mutual agreement. Strong candidates applying for a Clinical Associate Professor position may be considered for appointment on substantive terms. Appointments on the Clinical Professoriate of Practice track will be on a 3-year renewable contract.

A highly competitive salary commensurate with qualifications and experience will be offered. Fringe benefits include annual leave, medical and dental benefits, and housing benefits (where applicable).

Application Procedure

Interested candidates should apply online (<https://hkustcareers.ust.hk>), submitting: (a) an up-to-date curriculum vitae; (b) a one-page summary describing their most outstanding accomplishments and qualifications; (c) a statement of teaching philosophy; (d) a one-page description of their future research and career plan; and (e) the names and contact details of three referees (including email addresses).

Review of applications will begin immediately until the positions are filled.

(Information provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. Applicants should read the Personal Information Collection Statement (<https://hro.hkust.edu.hk/rcpics>) before submission of application.)

HKUST is an equal opportunities employer and is committed to our core values of inclusiveness, diversity, and respect.

香港科技大學
THE HONG KONG UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Biomedical Sciences Faculty
HKUST School of Medicine

The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) invites applications from exceptional candidates for biomedical sciences faculty positions (Professor / Associate Professor / Assistant Professor) for its new School of Medicine.

The University

HKUST is a dynamic young University with a global reputation for impact and innovation. Founded in 1991, HKUST is consistently ranked among the world's best institutions and 1st in Hong Kong for graduate employability.

As a world-renowned international research and interdisciplinary University with top-tier programs in science, engineering, business and management, humanities and social science, and interdisciplinary studies, HKUST is known for its entrepreneurial culture and powerful connections to industry and research. The University's English-speaking academic community thrives in a world-class, scenic environment at the Clear Water Bay campus.

HKUST's pioneering spirit is amplified through the "Unified HKUST, Complementary Campuses" framework, expanded by the opening of the innovative HKUST(Guangzhou) campus in 2022, which deepens its interdisciplinary reach into the Greater Bay Area and beyond.

For more information about HKUST, please visit: <https://hkust.edu.hk>

The HKUST School of Medicine

HKUST is embarking on a landmark initiative to establish the third medical school of Hong Kong following the successful proposal of the University and subsequent official approval from the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government.

The HKUST School of Medicine aspires to be a transformative force, focused on world-class education and research while attracting global talents. By integrating cutting-edge technology and pioneering science, the School will help shape the future of medicine and reinforce Hong Kong's position as an international hub for medical training, research, and innovation.

Built upon HKUST's interdisciplinary strengths, deeply international character, and global networks, the School will foster a world-class learning environment. As a leader in fields such as artificial intelligence, data science, and robotics, HKUST is uniquely positioned to create a medical school that fuses exceptional clinical expertise with technological innovation. Its mission is to cultivate future-ready physicians who are not only clinically outstanding but also technologically adept, innovative, and compassionate. The School will launch a 4-year graduate-entry Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) program, with global admissions opening by 2027 and the inaugural class expected to commence in the 2028/29 academic year.

The School will initially operate in a dedicated new medical teaching and research building at the Clear Water Bay campus, along with satellite site(s) close to a teaching hospital partner. Its long-term future includes a transition to a permanent, integrated campus and medical teaching and research hospital within Hong Kong's strategic Northern Metropolis, placing it at the center of the dynamic Greater Bay Area innovation ecosystem.

About the Roles

We invite applications from outstanding individuals with a strong commitment to both research and medical education. Appointees will contribute to pre-clinical teaching and postgraduate supervision, alongside a vibrant research program that advances biomedical science and its application to medicine.

We offer a dynamic and collaborative environment with state-of-the-art facilities, fostering excellence and innovation in advancing healthcare. Faculty members will have ample opportunities to develop cutting-edge curricula, engage in pioneering research, and shape the future of medical practice in the region.

Candidates

Applicants should have:

- A PhD and/or MD degree in biology, biomedical sciences, medicine, or a closely related area.
- A strong track record in both research and teaching, with demonstrated excellence in the relevant area.
- A demonstrated commitment to knowledge exchange, teamwork, and international engagement.
- Experience in medical education will be viewed favorably.

Applicants for Professor or Associate Professor should have substantial experience and a distinguished record of research excellence and academic leadership. A strong record of publication in leading journals and success in obtaining competitive external funding are expected. Applicants with less experience will be considered for Assistant Professor positions.

Terms of Appointment

Appointment as Professor will be on a substantive (tenured) basis. Initial appointment for Associate Professor / Assistant Professor will normally be on a 3-year contract, renewable subject to mutual agreement. Strong candidates applying for an Associate Professor position may be considered for appointment on substantive terms.

A highly competitive salary commensurate with qualifications and experience will be offered. Fringe benefits include annual leave, medical and dental benefits, and housing benefits (where applicable).

Application Procedure

Interested candidates should apply online (<https://hkustcareers.ust.hk>), submitting: (a) an up-to-date curriculum vitae; (b) a one-page summary describing their most outstanding accomplishments and qualifications; (c) a statement of teaching philosophy; (d) a one-page description of their future research and career plan; and (e) the names and contact details of three referees (including email addresses).

Review of applications will begin immediately until the positions are filled.

(Information provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. Applicants should read the Personal Information Collection Statement (<https://hro.hkust.edu.hk/rcpics>) before submission of application.)

HKUST is an equal opportunities employer and is committed to our core values of inclusiveness, diversity, and respect.

HEALTHCARE

Organisation Overview:

Founded in 1962, Yan Chai Hospital Board stands as a pillar of care and support in Hong Kong. Operating a network of 123 service units and a dedicated team of 3,600 staff, we deliver a wide spectrum of integrated services. These encompass Western and Chinese medical services, primary healthcare, social and community services, social housing, education, columbarium services, and charitable programmes. Annually, we provide nearly 1.2 million service attendances, creating a meaningful impact. We are now seeking an accomplished and visionary Chief Executive to lead the organisation into its next chapter of community service and development.

Chief Executive, Board Office (Ref: CE/SCMP/260305)

About the Role

Reporting directly to the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive will be a seasoned leader with a strong background in public sector operations and people management. We are seeking a candidate who possesses deep, hands-on experience in navigating government protocols, managing complex staff relations, and handling public inquiries. The ideal executive will bring a pragmatic, ground-up approach to ensure the organisation's stability, governance, and continued growth.

Key Responsibilities

- Strategic Leadership & Governance: Collaborate with the Board to formulate and implement organisational strategy. Leverage extensive government experience to ensure policies align with regulatory expectations and public sector standards.
- Organisational & People Management: Lead a fundamental transformation of administrative and HR frameworks. Must have proven experience in stakeholder engagement, staff relations, and handling multi-faceted grievances to foster a productive workplace.
- Crisis Management & Media Relations: Act as the primary point of contact for complex media enquiries and complaints. Utilise extensive front-line experience to mitigate public relations risks and safeguard the organisation's reputation.
- Stakeholder Engagement & Government Liaison: Represent the organisation in high-level discussions with government bodies. Must be adept at understanding tender requirements and bidding processes to facilitate institutional expansion.
- Fundraising & Community Advocacy: Lead fundraising initiatives while maintaining robust relationships with community partners and donors.

Qualifications and Experience

- A recognised university degree; an advanced degree is highly preferred.
- A minimum of 12 years of extensive administrative experience, including at least 5 years in a senior leadership role.
- Must have substantial experience working within or closely with the Hong Kong Government. Candidates with a career history in large organisations, particularly those who have risen from the ground up and managed big teams, are highly desirable.
- Proven track record in people management (HR & Administration), including direct experience with complaint handling, and media crisis resolution.
- Deep understanding of government operations, statutory requirements, and public sector bidding/tendering processes.
- Excellent command of both spoken and written English and Chinese (including Cantonese and Putonghua).
- Exceptional negotiation, crisis communication, and stakeholder management skills.

Terms of Appointment

Successful candidate will be offered a renewable two-year contract.

Remuneration

We offer a competitive compensation package, commensurate with the candidate's qualifications and experience.

Application Procedure

Please submit your full curriculum vitae, along with details of your current and expected salary and availability, by email to recruitment@yanchai.org.hk or by post to 10/F, Block C, Yan Chai Hospital, 7-11 Yan Chai Street, Tsuen Wan, N.T. on or before 20 March 2026.

If you have submitted an application (by sending your resume) in January or February 2026, your application remains valid and you do not need to apply again.

Shortlisted candidates can expect to be contacted for an interview within four to six weeks of the application closing date.

All information collected will be kept confidential and used solely for recruitment purposes.
